

ArtsHub Update

September 11 - September 25, 2020

This bi-weekly email highlights the work happening across the ArtsHub, along with upcoming events of note. If you would like to add items to future updates or be removed from the distribution list, please contact Shawn Lee at slee@artistsrep.org.

Highlights

- ART's virtual release party of Magellanica, the Audio Drama, is on Sunday, September 27, at 2pm. From the comfort of home, participants will tune into all five parts of E.M. Lewis's Antarctic epic drama - full of adventure, romance, science, history, and music! They'll also enjoy small group discussions with the cast and creative team during the four intermissions. See the ART website for more information. Here is a preview from Oregon ArtsWatch including a review of the original production.
- If you missed the live streaming ART Present + Future Event on September 22nd, you can view it here.
- The Portland Actors Conservatory is now The Actors Conservatory (TAC) at Artists Rep. ART and TAC have formed an alliance and are partnering on all education programs in the upcoming season. Programs include the Two-Year Certificate Program, In-School Programs, and Studio Classes, all of which continue online. Additionally, ART and TAC will develop and co-produce an audio drama written specifically for the 2nd year Conservatory students. Watch the replay of the ART Present + Future Event to learn more about the alliance (see timeline 1:18:00).
- Fall Studio classes begin on September 26. There are 16 new classes, including acting, playwriting, improv, and several discussion series classes. There are still a few openings available. See the ART website for more information.
- Classes and orientation begin on Monday, September 28, for 2nd year students in the The Actors Conservatory's two-year Certificate Program.
- BOOM ARTS virtual presentation of CARLA'S QUINCE A bilingual immersive virtual experience to mobilize the Latinx vote Streams September 28th at 6pm. For more information visit www.boomarts.org
- Lisa Harrow, who began her career at the Royal Shakespeare Company, is teaching a virtual Master Class series beginning October 6 at Portland Shakes. See the Portland Shakes website for more information.
